Zubicaray Jr., the Philippines' military chief of staff, said at a press briefing on Tuesday that a preliminary investigation had found Philippine military personnel were not involved in the rape of a 15-year-old Filipina on a South Korean train last month. "A preliminary investigation to determine the facts and circumstances of the incident was conducted, and the report was submitted to the Philippine National Police," Gen. Zubicaray said. On Wednesday, Philippine National Police Chief Ronald "Bato" dela Rosa said the South Korean authorities would release the names of the two Filipinos charged with the crime. Gen. Zubicaray said the Philippine military does not yet know if the two suspects are Filipinos, but he said he believes the two suspects would be "persons who did not belong to the military." Gen. Zubicaray said that the military would continue to assist in the investigation and that "the truth will be known at the end of the investigation."
